Hendricks Park & Point by Frank Ballard

On Saturday June 19th. a group of volunteers met in the park and at the point. Where we re-mulched all the trees, pruned them, weeded our flower beds, planted and added metal borders to the point beds; and picked up the trash. I want to thank everyone who turned out to help. It was a beautiful day and lunch was provided.

Special thanks to Bob Kruse and his hired help.

There were several other projects slated to be completed in our neighborhood, including house paintings and shed installation for some of our residents. The day was sponsored by SEND, and America's Fraternal Benefit Societies in partnership with the Points of Light Foundation and the Volunteer Center National Network.

At our next event we hope to have more local residents and BHNA members are present, as most of the volunteers were from other neighborhoods.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: BY MONICA MCHENRY

Hello! Friends and Neighbors,

Have you ever noticed how fast time flies when you are busy? Summer is always a time full of "Things To Do" lists and fun activities for friends and family! It is a wonderful time to be outside meeting children and neighbors on your street. I want to encourage you to plan on the 4th of July gathering at Hendrick's Park for fireworks (best view in town!!) and to participate in Indy's Night Out on August 6th. They both will be wonderful opportunities to get to know people who live in our neighborhood and have fun!!

I want to thank Immanuel United Church of Christ for their willingness to assist our association in so many ways; we really appreciate the use of your facilities and people always ready to jump in with both feet to help. You are a blessing to our neighborhood and us! I also want to thank Betty Smith-Beecher, Center Township Administrator, for attending our June meeting and listening to our area's concerns. We are looking forward to some positive results and ways that we can continue to improve our living environment.

Final food for thought: There are 3 kinds of people in this neighborhood; People who MAKE things happen. People who WATCH things happen. And people who WONDER what happened. May I encourage you to be part of the team that make things happen? Please consider joining us at a BHNA meeting soon and assist us in making our neighborhood a better place for all of us to live. God Bless,

Monica McHenry

A.A.A.D.D..... (Age Activated Attention Deficit Disorder)

Are you there yet??

This is how it goes: I decide to wash the car; I start toward the garage and notice the mail on the table. Ok, I'm going to wash the car. But first I'm going to go through the mail.

I lay the car keys down on the desk, discard the junk mail and I notice the trashcan is full. I'll just put the bills on my desk and take the trashcan out, but since I'm going to be near the mailbox anyway, I'll pay these few bills first. Now, where is my checkbook?

Oops, there's only one check left. My extra checks are in my desk. Oh, there's the coke I was drinking. I'm going to look for those checks. But first I need to put my coke further away from the computer, oh maybe I'll pop it into the fridge to keep it cold for a while.

I head towards the kitchen and my flowers catch my eye, they need some water. I set the coke on the counter and uh oh! There are my glasses. I was looking for them all morning! I'd better put them away first. I fill a container with water, head for the flower pots and notice that someone left the TV remote in the kitchen. We'll never think to look in the kitchen tonight when we want to watch television so I'd better put it back in the family room where it belongs.

I splash some water into the pots and onto the floor, throw the remote onto the sofa on my way to get a rag to wipe up the water and head back down the hall trying to figure out what it was I was going to do.

End of Day: The car isn't washed, the bills are unpaid, the coke is sitting on the kitchen counter, the flowers are half watered, the checkbook still only has one check in it and I can't seem to find my car keys! When I try to figure out why nothing got done today, I'm baffled because I know I was busy all day!! I realize this is a serious condition and I'll get help, but first I think I'll check my e-mail...

Well I got busy and missed a couple of Neighborhood meetings and I am blaming A.A.A.D.D.! But at the meetings that I did attend, I noticed that a lot of you were absent. We will give you the A.A.A.D.D. excuse for them too!

It's officially Summer and we hope to see everyone make some of the meetings, without you there can be no projects and events and eventually no organization! Come on make the effort for just one Monday evening a month! We need your ideas and input!
